

AMENDED IN SENATE APRIL 25, 2001

AMENDED IN SENATE APRIL 16, 2001

SENATE BILL

No. 1061

Introduced by Senator Alarcon

February 23, 2001

An act to add Section 3572.4 to the Government Code, relating to higher education labor relations.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 1061, as amended, Alarcon. University of California: activities relating to the Higher Education Employer-Employee Relations Act.

Existing law establishes the University of California, and provides for its administration by the Regents of the University of California. The existing Higher Education Employer-Employee Relations Act governs labor relations with respect to the University of California, the California State University, and their respective employees.

This bill would require the regents to report, by March 1, 2002, and annually ~~report by March 1 thereafter,~~ to the California Postsecondary Education Commission on specified activities relating to the obligations of the university under the Higher Education Employer-Employee Relations Act. The bill would also require the commission, by May 1, 2002, and annually by May 1 thereafter, to ~~annually~~ submit a report to the Legislature on the status of labor relations at the University of California.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: yes. State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3572.4 is added to the Government Code, to read:

3572.4. (a) This section shall apply only to the University of California.

(b) The Regents of the University of California shall ~~annually~~, on or before March 1, 2002, and on or before March 1 annually thereafter, report to the California Postsecondary Education Commission on activities relating to the obligations of the university under this chapter. The commission shall ~~annually~~, on or before May 1, 2002, and on or before May 1 annually thereafter, submit a report to the Legislature on the status of labor relations at the University of California. This report shall be based on information received from the university, labor organizations, and other sources that the commission deems appropriate.

(c) The report required of the regents by this section shall include, but not necessarily be limited to, lists of each of the following as of December 31 of the immediately preceding calendar year:

(1) Collective bargaining units including employees of the university.

(2) Executed memoranda of understanding between the university and its employees.

(3) Ongoing labor negotiations involving employees of the university.

(4) Requests for mediations affecting employees of the university.

(5) Filings alleging unfair labor practices by the university or its employees.
